

Haysville... small town with a big heart!

The Willows at Country Lakes is a new-home community nestled on the west side of Haysville. Located between 71st (Grand) and 79th streets South - and on the west side of Meridian, it's location couldn't be easier to find. The neighborhood elementary school, Freeman, is located just north of the Willows neighborhood.

Haysville prides itself on being able to preserve it's small-town atmosphere and still offer activities and recreation often not found in larger communities. With 7 city parks, 3 hiking/biking trails, and a community swimming pool - Haysville residents will enjoy many outdoor activities. Add the Haysville Senior Center, the Haysville Activity Center, and the Haysville Community Library - and you have fun and recreation for all ages year around. Visit the Haysville School District's web site for full information about the Haysville school system - which focuses on challenging curriculums and guiding the students to achieve on high levels.
